

Data Protection Policy - Personal Data Protection Act

The purpose of this document (“Data Protection Policy”) is to inform you of how Oversea-Chinese Banking Corporation Limited, Bangkok Branch (“OCBC”) manages Personal Data (as defined below) which is subject to the Thai Personal Data Protection Act 2019 (“the Act”). Please take a moment to read this Data Protection Policy so that you know and understand the purposes for which we collect, use and disclose your Personal Data.

By interacting with us, submitting information to us, or signing up for any products or services offered by us, you agree and consent to OCBC and its related corporations (collectively, the “Companies”), as well as their respective representatives and/or agents (“Representatives”) (the Companies and Representatives collectively referred to herein as “OCBC”, “us”, “we” or “our”) collecting, using, disclosing and sharing amongst themselves your Personal Data, and disclosing such Personal Data to the Companies’ authorised service providers and relevant third parties in the manner set forth in this Data Protection Policy.

This Data Protection Policy supplements but does not supersede nor replace any other consents you may have previously provided to OCBC in respect of your Personal Data, and your consents herein are additional to any rights which any of the Companies may have at law to collect, use or disclose your Personal Data.

OCBC may from time to time update this Data Protection Policy to ensure that this Data Protection Policy is consistent with our future developments, industry trends and/or any changes in legal or regulatory requirements. Subject to your rights at law, you agree to be bound by the prevailing terms of this Data Protection Policy as updated from time to time on our website <https://www.ocbc.com/business-banking/international/thailand-financial-information>. Please check back regularly for updated information on the handling of your Personal Data.

1. Personal Data

In this Data Protection Policy, “Personal Data” refers to any data, whether true or not, about an individual who can be identified (a) from that data; or (b) from that data and other information to which we have or are likely to have access, including data in our records as may be updated from time to time.

Examples of such Personal Data you may provide to us include (depending on the nature of your interaction with us) your name, ID number, passport or other identification number, telephone number(s), mailing address, email address, transactional data and any other information relating to any individuals which you have provided us in any forms you may have submitted to us (including in the form of biometric data), or via other forms of interaction with you.

2. Collection of Personal Data

1. Generally, we collect Personal Data in the following ways:
 - a. when you submit any form, including but not limited to application, declaration, proposal or referral forms;
 - b. when you enter into any agreement or provide other documentation or information in respect of your interactions and transactions with us, or when you use our services;
 - c. when you interact with our staff, including customer service officers, relationship managers and other representatives, for example, via telephone calls (which may be recorded), letters, fax, face-to-face meetings and email;

- d. when your images are captured by us via CCTV cameras while you are within our premises, or via photographs or videos taken by us or our representatives when you attend events hosted by us;
 - e. when you use our services provided through online and other technology platforms, such as websites and apps, including when you establish any online accounts with us;
 - f. when you request that we contact you, be included in an email or other mailing list; or when you respond to our request for additional Personal Data, our promotions and other initiatives;
 - g. when you are contacted by, and respond to, our marketing representatives and agents and other service providers;
 - h. when you submit an employment application or when you provide documents or information including your resume and/or curriculum vitae in connection with any appointment as an officer, director, representative or any other position;
 - i. when you use our electronic services, or interact with us via our websites and platforms or use services on our websites and platforms;
 - j. when we seek information about you and receive your Personal Data in connection with your relationship with us, including for banking products, insurance policies or job applications, for example, from business partners, public agencies, your ex-employer and the relevant authorities; and/or
 - k. when you submit your Personal Data to us for any other reason.
2. When you browse our website and platforms, you generally do so anonymously but please see the section below on cookies. We do not, at our website and platforms, automatically collect Personal Data, including your email address unless you provide such information or log in with your account credentials.
 3. If you provide us with any Personal Data relating to a third party (e.g. information on your customers, spouse, children, parents, and/or employees), by submitting such information to us, you represent to us that you have obtained the consent of such third party to you providing us with their Personal Data for the respective purposes.
 4. You should ensure that all Personal Data submitted to us is complete, accurate, true and correct. Failure on your part to do so may result in our inability to provide you with products and services you have requested, or to perform our obligations under relevant contract with you.

3. Purposes for the Collection, Use and Disclosure of Your Personal Data

4. In relation to particular products or services or in your interactions with us, we may also have specifically notified you of other purposes for which we collect, use or disclose your Personal Data. If so, we will collect, use and disclose your Personal Data for these additional purposes as well, unless we have specifically notified you otherwise.

4. Disclosure of Personal Data

1. OCBC will take reasonable steps to protect your Personal Data against unauthorised disclosure. Subject to the provisions of any applicable law, your Personal Data may be provided, for the purposes listed above (where applicable), to the following entities or parties, whether they are located overseas or in Thailand:
 - a. OCBC's related corporations;

- b. counterparties and their respective banks in relation to fund transfers, payments, drawing of cheques, and other transactions;
 - c. third party recipients of bank reference letters;
 - d. agents, contractors or third party service providers who provide operational services to OCBC, such as courier services, telecommunications, information technology, payment, payroll, processing, training, market research, storage, archival, customer support investigation services or other services to OCBC;
 - e. external banks and their respective service providers;
 - f. third party referrers;
 - g. our business partners;
 - h. our professional advisers such as our auditors and lawyers;
 - i. relevant government regulators, government ministries, statutory boards or authorities and/or law enforcement agencies, whether local or overseas, including but not limited to the Bank of Thailand, Revenue Department, and the Anti-Money Laundering Office (AMLO), to comply with any directions, laws, rules, guidelines, regulations or schemes issued or administered by any of them, as well as to comply with listing and other requirements or directions of the Bank of Thailand and/or any other relevant securities exchange; and/or
 - j. any other party to whom you authorise us to disclose your Personal Data to.
2. You acknowledge and agree that your Personal Data may be transferred outside Thailand where it will be stored and processed by us and relevant third parties for the purposes set out in this Data Protection Policy. When we transfer your Personal Data outside Thailand, we will comply with our legal and regulatory obligations in relation to your Personal Data, including having a lawful basis for transferring Personal Data and putting appropriate safeguards in place to ensure an adequate level of protection for the Personal Data. We will also ensure that the foreign recipient is obligated to protect your Personal Data at a standard of protection comparable to the protection under Thai law.

5. Data Security

1. OCBC will take reasonable efforts to protect Personal Data in our possession or our control by making reasonable security arrangements to prevent unauthorised access, collection, use, disclosure, copying, modification, disposal or similar risks. However, we cannot completely guarantee the security of any Personal Data we may have collected from or about you, or that for example no harmful code will enter our website (for example viruses, bugs, trojan horses, spyware or adware). You should be aware of the risks associated with using websites.
2. While we strive to protect your Personal Data, we cannot ensure the security of the information you transmit to us via the Internet or when you use our electronic banking services (which includes Internet Banking, Mobile Banking and Phone Banking services), and we urge you to take every precaution to protect your Personal Data when you use such platforms. We recommend that you change your passwords often, use a combination of letters and numbers, and ensure that you use a secure browser.
3. If applicable, you undertake to keep your username and password secure and confidential and shall not disclose or permit it to be disclosed to any unauthorised person, and to inform us as soon as reasonably practicable if you know or suspect that someone else knows your username and password or believe the confidentiality of your username and password has been lost, stolen or compromised in any way or that actual or possible unauthorised transactions have taken place. We are not liable for any damages resulting from any security breaches, on unauthorised and/or fraudulent use of your username and password.

6. Retention Period

1. We will retain Personal Data for the period necessary to fulfil the purposes for which the Personal Data was collected in compliance with our obligations under Thai laws. After such period, we will destroy such Personal Data from our archives without notice or any further liability.
2. The retention period will vary depending on the Purposes for which the Personal Data was collected. Where any Personal Data is only useful for a short period (such as for a specific event, marketing campaign or recruitment purposes), we may delete it at the end of such period.
3. You have the right to request us to delete the Personal Data in some circumstances. Please note that we are sometimes legally obliged to retain your Personal Data, for example, for tax and accounting purposes.

7. Your Personal Data Rights

You have the following rights in relation to the Personal Data we hold about you. If you wish to make a request to exercise your rights, you can contact us by using our contact details in the “Contacting Us” section below.

1. Right of Access

You may request for access to the Personal Data that you provide to us. We will confirm whether we are processing your Personal Data and, if so, provide you with a copy of the same. To the extent permitted by law, we may levy a reasonable fee for processing your request in producing additional copies.

2. Right to Rectification

You are entitled to rectify your Personal Data if the Personal Data we hold about you is inaccurate or incomplete. In such event, we will notify any persons to whom we have shared your Personal Data where possible.

3. Right to Erasure

You may ask us to delete or anonymize your Personal Data in certain circumstances, where:

- a. the Personal Data are no longer necessary in relation to the Purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
- b. you withdraw consent on which the collection or processing is based on, and where we have no legal ground for such collection or processing;
- c. you have a right to object further processing of your Personal Data (see below); or
- d. the Personal Data have been unlawfully processed.

The above does not apply to the extent that such Personal Data retention is necessary for the purpose of freedom of expression, for the performance of a contract, the purpose of establishment, compliance or exercise of legal claims, or defense of legal claims, or other purposes permissible by and in compliance with the law.

4. Right to Restriction

You can ask us to block or suppress the processing of your Personal Data in certain circumstances, where:

- a. you contest the accuracy of the Personal Data we use;
- b. you object to our using the Personal Data on the basis of legitimate interest;
- c. we do no longer need your Personal Data but you require them for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims; or
- d. the processing is unlawful and you request the restriction of processing in preference to erasure of that Personal Data.

5. Right to Object

You can ask us to stop processing your Personal Data, and we will do so, if we are:

- a. relying on our own legitimate interest or those of a third party to process your Personal Data, unless we are able to demonstrate compelling legal grounds for processing; or
- b. processing your Personal Data for direct marketing purposes.

If you object to the processing, please specify whether you wish the erasure of your Personal Data or the restriction of its processing by us.

6. Right to Portability:

You have the right, in certain circumstances, to obtain Personal Data you have provided to us (in a commonly used and machine-readable format) and to reuse it elsewhere or to ask us to transfer it directly to a third party as specified by you.

7. Right to Withdraw Consent

If we rely on your consent as our legal basis for processing your Personal Data, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time.

8. Right to Lodge a Complaint

If you have a concern about any aspect of our privacy practices, including the way we have handled your Personal Data, please contact us using the contact details provided in the "Contacting Us" section below. In case of an alleged infringement of applicable privacy laws, you may lodge a complaint with the data protection supervisory authority, including the Personal Data Protection Commission of Thailand.

8. Contacting Us - Feedback, Withdrawal of Consent, Access and Correction of your Personal Data

1. If you:

- a. have any questions or feedback relating to your Personal Data or our Data Protection Policy;
- b. would like to withdraw your consent to any use of your Personal Data as set out in this Data Protection Policy; or

- c. would like to obtain access and make corrections to your Personal Data records, you can approach us via the following channels:
 - Email us at BKKDPO@ocbc.com
 - Call our hotline at +66 2287 9888
 - Talk to our staff at any of our branches
2. You may also write to our Data Protection Officer as follows:

Data Protection Officer

Oversea-Chinese Banking Corporation Limited, Bangkok Branch
Unit 2605-10, 26th Floor, 195 One Bangkok Tower 4,
Witthayu Road, Lumpini, Pathumwan, Bangkok, 10330 Thailand

Please note that if your Personal Data has been provided to us by a third party, you should contact such party directly to make any queries, feedback, and access and correction requests to OCBC on your behalf.

3. If you do not provide your Personal Data or withdraw your consent to any or all use of your Personal Data, depending on the nature of your request, OCBC may not be in a position to continue to provide its products or services to you, administer any contractual relationship already in place. This may also result in the termination of any agreements you have with OCBC, and your being in breach of your contractual obligations or undertakings. OCBC's legal rights and remedies in such event are expressly reserved.

9. Governing Law

This Data Protection Policy and your use of this website shall be governed in all respects by the laws of Thailand.
