- 4. Interest
- 4.1 General
- 4.1.1 Unless we tell you otherwise, we will charge interest based on the actual number of days in the year.
- 4.1.2 A notification from us showing our board lending rate or prime lending rate or other rate of interest will be final and legally binding.
- 4.1.3 All interest will build up from the date we release the loan until the date you pay off the loan (including interest that builds up after any court judgment or order). We will decide whether to charge simple or compound interest (where we charge interest on the interest you owe, then add this to the amount you must pay).
- 4.1.4 We may increase, reduce or change the interest rates and periodic rests (how often your instalments are due). We do not have to give you notice before doing this. The new interest rates and periodic rests will take effect from the date we decide.
- 4.1.5 If we change the interest rates or periodic rests:
- a. you must repay the facility by increasing or reducing your monthly instalments or interest payments, or repay under another repayment scheme we set based on the new interest rates or periodic rests; and
  - b. before we release the facility, the revised interest rates or periodic rests will apply without further notice to you.
- 4.2 Term loan
- 4.2.1 We will charge interest each month depending on the amount you still owe under the term loan as at the last day of the previous month.
- 4.2.2 We will charge interest until the commencement date, and you must pay it on the date we tell you.

- 4.3 Bridging loan and short-term loan
- Interest will build up daily on the amount you still owe under the bridging loan or short-term loan and you must pay it as follows.
- 4.3.1 Monthly for the month that has just passed, in cash or from CPF savings (where this applies and is approved) until you have repaid the bridging loan or short-term loan in full.
- 4.3.2 In full in cash or from CPF savings (where this applies and is approved) when you have repaid the bridging loan or short-term loan in full.
- If you are paying monthly, the interest repayments will start on the commencement date and future payments will be due on the 15th day of every month.
- 5. Interest and fees for late payments
- If you fail or refuse to pay the monthly instalments, interest, any repayments under the facility or any money which is due to us when they are due (overdue amounts), you will also have to pay:
- 5.1 a charge as shown in our pricing guide for each monthly instalment you are late in paying (for a term loan);
- 5.2 a charge as shown in our pricing guide for each interest payment you are late in paying (for a bridging loan or short-term loan); and
- 5.3 extra interest at the rate of 4.75% a year above our current prime lending rate (or at any other rate we may set from time to time) on the overdue amounts from the date the payments were due until the date you pay them (including interest that builds up after any court judgment or order). We will decide whether to charge simple or compound interest (see clause 4.1.3) and the minimum fee for each late payment is shown in our pricing guide.
- 6. Repayment
- 6.1 No payment or any part payment you make will be used to repay the main amount you borrowed until you have paid all interest that is due.
- 6.2 Term loan
- 6.2.1 You must repay the term loan in monthly instalments made up of both a repayment off the main amount you borrowed and interest as shown in the letter of offer or in any notice we may give you. The first monthly instalment will be due on the commencement date. You must then pay your instalments on the 15th day of each following month until you have repaid all of the term loan and the interest on it.
- 6.2.2 The term for the term loan will start on the commencement date.
- 6.2.3 Unless we tell you otherwise, as long as we and the CPF Board agree, you can use CPF savings to pay your monthly instalments for the term loan.
- If there is any difference between the monthly instalment and the amount paid from your CPF savings, we will take this difference from your account with us.
- 6.3 Bridging loan and short-term loan
- You must repay the bridging loan or the short-term loan (or both) within six months of receiving it or immediately after the sale of the existing property completes, whichever is earlier.
- 6.4 We do not accept payments by cheque unless we have agreed to this with you.
- 6.5 If the monthly instalment, interest payment or other payment is due on a day which is not a business day, you must make the payment on the next business day. (A 'business day' is a day on which we are open for business. It does not include Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays.)
- 7. Reduction in the value of the property
- 7.1 If we believe that the value of the security is too low, because of its current market value or otherwise, we may do one or more of the following without affecting any other rights we have.
- 7.1.1 Review, reduce, restructure or cancel the facility or part of it.
- 7.1.2 Withhold or disallow the release of a payment under the facility.
- 7.1.3 Ask you to repay all or part of the amount you still owe on the facility.
- 7.1.4 Use the security to pay off any amounts you owe us.
- 7.1.5 Ask you to provide extra security for an amount we decide.
- 7.1.6 Take any other action we feel is necessary.
- 7.2 We have the right to appoint a valuer to carry out a valuation of the security from time to time. You and the guarantor must accept this valuation as final. You must cover the costs of the valuation.
- 8. Repaying the loan early
- 8.1 Unless we agree otherwise, you may repay the facility in full under the following conditions.
- 8.1.1 You must give us at least two months' written notice that you intend to repay the facility early, or pay us two months' interest instead of giving us notice.
- 8.1.2 If you pay off the facility in full within the prepayment period, you must pay a prepayment fee, calculated on such amounts as we decide (see the letter of offer for more details).
- 8.1.3 If you change the date when you will pay off the facility in full to a date which falls after the date when your two months' written notice ends or the proposed date for paying off the facility in full as set out in your written notice, whichever is later, we may do one or more of the following.

- a. Charge you an administrative fee or another fee as shown in our pricing guide.
- b. Ask you to send us a new notice that you intend to pay off the facility early.

8.2 Unless we tell you otherwise, you can repay part of the facility early (make a partial repayment) under the following conditions.

8.2.1 You must give us at least one month's written notice that you want to make a partial repayment, or pay us one month's interest instead of giving us notice.

8.2.2 If you make a partial repayment within the prepayment period, you must pay a prepayment fee calculated on such amounts as we decide (see the letter of offer for more details).

8.2.3 The amount of the partial repayment must not be less than S$5,000 and any amounts over this must be in multiples of S$1,000.

8.2.4 We will decide whether to use the partial repayment to either pay your monthly instalments to reduce the term of the loan or to reduce your monthly instalments for the term loan.

8.3 Even if you have given us notice that you want to repay all or part of the term loan, you must continue to pay your monthly instalments or make any other repayments that are due for the term loan until we receive the full payment of the amount shown in the notice.

8.4 You must pay all legal fees and charges in connection with paying off all or part of the facility.

9. Cancelling the loan

9.1 If all or part of the term loan is cancelled after you have accepted the letter of offer, you must pay a cancellation fee as shown in the letter of offer. We may decide not to charge the cancellation fee if you cancel the facility because the HDB will not give you permission to buy the property.

9.2 The term loan or any part of it will be cancelled or taken to be cancelled if:

9.2.1 you give us written notice to cancel the term loan or any part of it;

9.2.2 we have not released payment under the term loan or any part of it within three months from the date of the letter of offer or any other period we tell you in the letter of offer or agree otherwise in writing; or

9.2.3 we have not released payment under the term loan or any part of it by the completion date of the property you are buying; whichever happens first.

9.3 The bridging loan or the short-term loan or any part of it which we have not yet released will be cancelled or considered to have been cancelled immediately after the sale of the existing property completes.

9.4 If we have paid the bridging loan and you then cancel any part of the facility, the difference between the unpaid purchase price of the property and the amount of the facility which we have yet to release will be held by our solicitors for our benefit.

9.5 If you do not use the facility within three months from the date of the letter of offer (or any period shown in the letter of offer or which we have agreed with you), we can cancel the facility.

18. Permission to reveal information about you or the property

18.1 You and the guarantor give us permission to give any information relating to you or the guarantor, or any other information we consider appropriate (including details of the property, the facility, the people who will live in or use the property and the purchase price of the property) to the HDB, any person who we are allowed or required to give information to by law, or to any other person for any purpose. You and the guarantor also agree that we may give as much information as is allowed under the Banking Act 1970 or any other act or law. You and the guarantor also give us permission to give information to credit bureaus or any other organisation or business set up to collect and provide information relating to people's ability to repay credit, and permission for the credit bureau or other organisation or business to assess how likely it is that you or the guarantor will be able to repay, or for any other purpose.

18.2 Without affecting clause 18.1, you also agree to us collecting, using and sharing any information relating to you (including details of any of your accounts (whether held alone or jointly), facilities or transactions which you may have), and any information about any guarantor or other person, which you have provided to us or which we collect as part of collecting, using or sharing your information for the purposes set out below. You must confirm that you have each guarantor's or other person's permission for us to collect, use and share any information relating to them for any of the following purposes.

- (1) To help to carry out and evaluate the restructure, sale or transfer, or proposed restructure, sale or transfer, of all or any part of any facility (or any right or interest, including beneficial interests, provided under the facility) or all or any part of any security interest (or any right or interest, including beneficial interests, provided under the security interest) under any security document, whether or not we enter into or complete the restructure, sale or transfer. This includes (but is not limited to) situations where the restructure, sale or transfer takes place as a result of creating a trust over the facility or the security interest, or both (in each case, a 'relevant transaction').
- (2) For any purposes in connection with a debt programme related to or connected with a relevant transaction (including evaluating, arranging, advising on or structuring the debt programme or auditing and due diligence (for example, checking that the credit facility or the security document is in line with any laws and regulations that apply)).
- (3) For the day-to-day management of accounts and services, to carry out transactions or to allow, complete, confirm, fulfil or carry out any dealing between us and you or the guarantor, any relevant transaction or any debt programme, obligations and risks under this agreement, any facility, any other agreement we have entered into with you or the guarantor or any transaction we carry out with, for or on behalf of you or the guarantor (including any transaction we carry out through an intermediary or in relation to any other transaction under which payments are to be made to or by you or the guarantor, any transaction in connection with buying or selling any credit insurance, or any other contractual protection or hedging relating to your or the guarantor's obligations to us and perfecting or enforcing any facility or security interest). This includes for the purposes of asking service providers to carry out duties (outsourcing, delegating or subcontracting work) and that service provider carrying out the duties, to meet any laws, legal requirements and industry standards or regulators' requests that apply, and for updating and maintaining relevant ledgers and registers.

The people we may give information to, and who may collect, use and further share the information, for any of the above purposes (whether within or outside Singapore) include any of the following.

- (i) Any person we assign or transfer or may assign or transfer our rights or interests to and any other person taking part in or otherwise involved in a relevant transaction or in any other transaction relating to or entered into in connection with a relevant transaction, and any person who has any rights or interest in the subject matter of the relevant transaction.
- (ii) Any person taking part in or otherwise involved in servicing, administering, collecting, perfecting or enforcing all or any part of the facility or all or any part of any security interest under any security document at any time before, during or after a relevant transaction.
- (iii) If a relevant transaction is related to or entered into in connection with a debt programme or any other transaction or group of transactions, any other people taking part in or otherwise involved in the debt programme or other transactions.
- (iv) Any third party (such as our service providers) or related companies (together with us, the 'OCBC Group'), including any third party that the OCBC Group or a service provider has delegated, outsourced or subcontracted work to, or otherwise appointed.
- (v) Any professional advisers, consultants, agents and other service providers of any people referred to in this clause 18.2 (including lawyers, accountants, auditors, rating agencies and servicing agents), whether or not they were appointed specifically in connection with a relevant transaction.

18.3 The rights we have under this clause apply as well as, and are not affected by, any other agreement with you or the guarantor. Our rights under this clause will continue even if you or the guarantor closes any or all of your or the guarantor's accounts or facilities with us, and if any relationship between us and you or the guarantor ends.

18.4 You and the guarantor give the OCBC Group and our business partners and agents (the 'OCBC representatives') permission to collect (including by recording phone calls), use and share your and the guarantor's personal information for purposes that are reasonably required by the OCBC Group and the OCBC representatives to allow us to provide the facility and services under this agreement. These purposes are set out in our Data Protection Policy, which you have read and understood. Please refer to our Data Protection Policy at OCBC website > personal-banking > policies.

19. Insurance

You and the guarantor must insure the property and take out the CPF Home Protection Insurance or any other insurance policies we ask you and the guarantor to.

20. Expenses, taxes and other fees

20.1 You and the guarantor must pay the following when we ask you to.

20.1.1 All charges or fees in connection with the facility (the amounts are shown in our pricing guide), as well as all insurance premiums, legal fees (on an indemnity basis under the Rules of Court), stamp duty and valuation costs due in connection with the facility or under this agreement or the security document.

20.1.2 All legal fees (on indemnity basis under the Rules of Court) and other reasonable costs and out-of-pocket expenses we have to pay in connection with administering and enforcing this agreement and the security document.

20.1.3 All legal costs (on an indemnity basis under the Rules of Court) and expenses if the facility is cancelled, whether it was our decision to cancel the facility or it was cancelled because you or the guarantor failed or refused to go ahead with the facility or security.

20.1.4 All charges and fees we set from time to time, including the standard fees and charges set out in our pricing guide.

In clauses 20.1.1 to 20.1.3 above, where we say you must pay legal costs and fees 'on an indemnity basis under the Rules of Court', this means that you must pay us and also pay our solicitors' full legal costs and out-of-pocket expenses.

20.2 You or the guarantor must pay all taxes that are due and meet all government and legal requirements relating to those taxes.

20.3 Without affecting clause 12, we are entitled to, but do not have to, pay the above amounts on your and the guarantor's behalf first. If we do so, you or the guarantor must pay us back these amounts plus interest at the rate of 4.75% a year over our current prime lending rate or any other rate we tell you or the guarantor, calculated from the date we make the payment up to the date these amounts are fully repaid (including interest that builds up after any court judgment or order). The interest will be compound interest (where we charge interest on the interest you or the guarantor owes, then add this to the amount you or the guarantor must pay).

20.4 We may at any time set new fees for the facility or change the rate or amount of any charges or fees you must pay as shown in our pricing guide (available on OCBC website > personal banking > loans > home loans).

We may give you notice to do this by:

- (a) sending you a statement of account;
- (b) putting up notices and displays at our branches or cash machines;
- (c) putting a notice on our website;
- (d) sending you a letter or email;
- (e) putting notices in any newspapers; or
- (f) any other form of communication we choose.

Any change will take effect from the date shown in the notice which, in most cases, will be at least 30 days from the date of the notice.

21. Binding statement

A statement or certificate signed by our authorised officer stating the amount you must pay under this agreement or the security document will be final and binding except for any clerical errors in it.

22. Notices

22.1 Any statement, advice, notice or certificate we give to, or demand we make on, you or the guarantor will be considered to have been given if it is in writing, and delivered personally, or sent by telex, email, fax, telegram, prepaid post or other electronic means to:

- a. the address shown in the letter of offer;
- b. the address of the property mortgaged by you or the guarantor to us;
- c. your or the guarantor's last known business or home address in Singapore;
- d. your or the guarantor's published email address, telex or fax number; or
- e. the last contact number or email address you or the guarantor gave to us in writing.

This applies even if you (or the guarantor) die, become insane or are declared bankrupt.

22.2 If we send you a communication by post, you and the guarantor will be considered to have received it on the second day after posting, even if the post office returned it as undelivered. If we send you a communication by telex, email, fax or telegram, you and the guarantor will be considered to have received it at the time we sent it.

22.3 A statement signed by our authorised officer showing the date or time we sent any demand or notice will be evidence that we did send the demand or notice on that date or at that time.

22.4 If you need to send us notice, certificates or any other communication, you should send it to our address as shown in the letter of offer (or to any other address we have given you for this purpose). The notice will be considered to have been given or received at the time our authorised officer acknowledges they have received it.

22.5 You must tell us in writing and as soon as possible of any change in your or the guarantor's postal address, email address, contact details or place of business.

23. Serving court documents

We may serve any writ of summons or other court process, or a sealed copy of these, or pleadings or other documents on you and the guarantor by leaving them at the address shown in the letter of offer or at your (or the guarantor's) last known home or business address in Singapore. We are entitled to rely on our records or the records of any registry, government or official authority to find your last known address. If your or the guarantor's last known address is a postal box number or other hold-mail address, we may post the documents to that address. You and the guarantor confirm that this is acceptable to you.

24. The right to vary any of the terms and conditions of this agreement

24.1 We have the right to change any of these terms and conditions by giving you notice. Any change will take effect from the date shown in the notice which, in most cases, will be at least 30 days from the date of the notice.

24.2 We may tell you of any change to these terms and conditions by:

- (a) sending you a statement of account;
- (b) putting up notices and displays at our branches or cash machines;
- (c) putting a notice on our website;
- (d) sending you a letter or email;
- (e) putting notices in any newspapers; or
- (f) any other form of communication we choose.

24.3 If you do not accept the change, you must immediately repay all amounts owing under this agreement. If you continue to use the facility or if you do not repay all amounts owing under the facility after we tell you about the change, you and the guarantor will be considered to have agreed with and accepted the change.

25. Separate conditions

If any one or more of the conditions in this agreement are not valid or legal, or cannot be enforced under any law that applies, this will not affect the rest of the conditions in this agreement.

26. Transferring rights under this agreement

26.1 You and the guarantor must not transfer any of your rights under this agreement.

26.2 Without affecting clause 26.1 above, this agreement and the security document will be valid and binding on anyone who (with our permission) takes over the loan or takes over as guarantor.

26.3 We may transfer all or part of our rights, title and interest in, or transfer all or part of our obligations under this agreement and the security document, without your or the guarantor's permission. You and the guarantor agree that any person or business we transfer or assign to will be entitled to all our rights under this agreement and the security document.

If we transfer or assign our rights, your and the guarantor's obligations under this agreement and the security document will be owed to the person or business we have transferred or assigned our rights to, but our liabilities to you (including any money in your bank accounts which you hold with us) will remain our own. This may mean, for example, that you could lose the right to use any money we owe you (including money in your bank accounts) to set off (reduce) the amount of your loans.

After we transfer or assign our rights, we may or may not set off your loans by any money we owe you (including money in your bank accounts). Whether we do this will depend on the circumstances, including whether our organisation is wound up, and if so, when.

If we do not set off your loans by any money we owe you, you will have to pay the full outstanding amount of your loans to the person or business we transfer or assign our rights, title and interest to, even though we may not be able to repay all or any amount we owe you (including money in your bank accounts).

27. The Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 2001

A person who is not named in this agreement will have no rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 2001 to enforce any of its terms.

28. Governing law

28.1 This agreement, the security document and all matters relating to the facility will be governed by the laws of Singapore.

28.2 Everyone named in this agreement and the security document, particularly you and the guarantor, must agree that any disputes connected with this agreement will be dealt with in the courts of Singapore. However, this will not prevent us from starting proceedings in the courts of any other country.
